INTRODUCTION

The purpose of this section is to highlight the responsibilities of the media coordinator at NCAA championship competition and should be used in conjunction with the sports-specific NCAA host operations manual. In addition, the NCAA media coordinator will share sport-specific information as needed.

Media coordinators should work closely with the national office staff and the sports information directors of each participating team to provide smooth media operations at each site, for the media, the coaches and the student-athletes.

Although this and the other publications attempt to cover all phases of championship competition, some questions may arise before or during the event. Media coordinators and SIDs should feel free to contact the NCAA staff media liaison for the specific championship concerning any aspect of the event's media operations. Expected duties of the media coordinator are included as Appendix A on page 12.

Comments and suggestions are always welcome.

Best of luck with your championship event.

NCAA Media Coordination and Statistics Staff

CONTACTS

For a complete list of NCAA media coordination and statistics duties, please click here.

GENERAL INFORMATION

ALL-TOURNAMENT TEAM

Please check the specific sport championship manuals (host operations and/or participant) to determine if an all-tournament team is to be selected. The manual will explain who selects the team (media, sport committee, etc.) how many members should be on the team and if a Most Outstanding Player(s) is to be named. The Most Outstanding Player(s) should always be included on the all-tournament team and should never be an additional player. The all-tournament team will be recognized in the venue following the championship game. A sample all-tournament team ballot is included as Appendix B on page 13.

BROADCAST SERVICES

TELEVISED CHAMPIONSHIPS

If an NCAA championship is to be televised, the media coordinator will be notified by the NCAA tournament operations staff member or NCAA media coordinator. NCAA broadcast staff will relay any needs specific to television to the host media coordinator such as power, press row space, etc. Information about NCAA broadcasts can be found online at ncaa.com/media.

TELEVISION POLICIES

Please visit ncaa.com/media for updated information related to the NCAA's television and video policies. Once on the ncaa.com/media webpage, click on the "Broadcast Services" link to review information including, broadcast media coverage parameters, footage usage and licensing, etc.

CHAMPIONSHIP RECORD BOOKS

NCAA championship record books are available at ncaa.org/statistics.

CHAMPIONSHIP WEBSITE GUIDELINES

NCAA.com will host championship websites for all final round sites. The NCAA media coordination staff will provide a list of information that the host SID will need to provide for the site. NCAA championship hosts/local organizing committees have the opportunity to build their own championship micro-site to house information about local events, restaurants, volunteer information, etc. Please see the Championship Microsite Guidelines for complete details.

CREDENTIALS

All media credentials are authorized and issued by the host or NCAA media coordinator. The NCAA provides credentials for all final championship sites and selected preliminary round sites. Please contact the NCAA media coordinator or championships operations staff member to find out if you are responsible for producing your own credentials.

If you are producing your own credentials, the "Conditions Placed on Use of Credentials" should be placed on the back of all credentials. That text, located at ncaa.com/credentialterms, should also be visible at credential pick-up.

The following is a sample of the credential types that can be produced, if applicable to the championship event:

- Conference Administrator - For conference office personnel.
- Event Management - For event management staff that doesn't need all access (based on space and demand, it may not be necessary to produce a staff and an all access credential).
- Media - For members of the media to give them access to press areas (including: press box, media room, interview room, locker rooms [postgame only]).
- Participant - For student-athletes, coaches, equipment managers (basically anyone in the official travel party).
- Photo - For still photographers and television camera operators (if the contest isn't going to be televised) to allow them access to appropriate areas (playing surface, locker rooms [postgame only], press box and media room).
- SID - For sports information directors of the participating teams (may allow access to media areas and locker rooms as needed).
- Broadcast - Broadcast personnel should have their own credential to allow them access to specific places such as the television truck compound.

It is up to the tournament manager to determine where each credential should be allowed access to based on the space allotted at the site.

CREDENTIAL REQUESTS, QUALIFICATIONS AND ACCEPTANCE

CREDENTIAL CRITERIA

To view the NCAA's criteria for credentialing members of the media please see Media Credentials Criteria.

Note: Working credentials will not be mailed. The media coordinator should issue credentials individually at an appropriate site at the venue or at the designated headquarters or media hotel. A government-issued photo ID is required to pick up credentials. Credentials are non-transferable and will only be issued to the person whose name appears on the credential. Credential pick-up for others is not allowed.

FINAL-ROUND SITE

Approximately one month before the final round, championship site media coordinators should send credential application information to media representatives who regularly cover intercollegiate athletics in their market. The information should direct media to ncaa.com/media, which includes credential application instructions, credential criteria and links to the NCAA's media policies. The final round championship site media coordinator will approve/deny all credential requests in the online credentialing system. The system will notify all media members who apply for credentials whether their request has been granted or denied via email. If a media member is granted a credential, host media coordinators are responsible for sending that media member information regarding game times, press conference schedules, credential pick-up and media parking.

PRELIMINARY-ROUND SITE

Preliminary round site media coordinators should send a credential request to members of the local media to determine who will be covering the event.

Media should be approved in accordance with the criteria listed in the Media Credentials Criteria.

CREDENTIAL BOARDS

The NCAA will provide credential boards at all final championship and select preliminary sites where the NCAA produces credentials. These are to advise security personnel at the competition venue which credentials are allowed into which parts of the venue. For credentials that are not allowed into a specific area, use a black marker to cross out the credentials that are not permitted.

FINAL RESULTS BOOK

The final results book for team championships should include at a minimum: final statistics and results. Additional items that may be included in the final book are: cover sheet, recap, postgame notes, all-tournament team, quotes, and/or a play-by-play summary.

FLIP CARDS/ROSTERS

For specific sports, flip cards should be provided to all media members for easy reference to participating team information. The flip cards should include complete team rosters (including the coaching staff), with a minimum of the student-athlete uniform number. In addition, the flip card should include team results as well as standard information regarding the game, such as date, location and opponent. A sample flip card is included in Appendix C on page 14.

INTERNET SERVICES

Hard-wired and wireless data services and related equipment will be provided by the host institution/conference/facility.

LIVE VIDEO STREAMING

The NCAA and our primary broadcast partners [i.e., Warner Bros. Discovery Sports (WBD Sports); CBS; ESPN; Golf Channel] own all television and digital / Internet video streaming rights for all NCAA championships.

A live video streaming schedule will be published on NCAA.com at ncaa.com/liveschedule.

For those NCAA championship events in which our primary broadcast partners elect NOT to exercise their rights, member schools and/or media outlets may request live video streaming rights. The request form and live video streaming policy can be accessed at ncaa.com/rights-request.

MEDIA GUIDES AND POSTSEASON GUIDES

The NCAA or host media coordinator shall notify each school that qualifies for the championship their plan for media guides and/or postseason guides and whether it is necessary to bring printed copies or provide digitally. If copies are being shipped, the media coordinator should provide an overnight address where schools can send them.

MEDIA MEALS

Media meals are not required at all championships. Disbursements should be guided by the budget which was originally submitted by the tournament manager and approved by the NCAA national office.

MEDIA PARKING

Media parking is desired at each site and required at most. The media coordinator should determine if it would be more effective to use parking passes or a parking list. If passes are used, the host institution must generate them. Media shuttle systems may also be used provided any costs are approved in advance by the specific sport committee and NCAA tournament operations staff member.

MEDIA WORKROOM

If necessary, a media workroom should be designated at each site where media members can file stories, photos, videos, etc., during/following competition. The workroom should be equipped high-speed internet lines and/or wireless internet access. In addition, the room should have an adequate amount of seating and electrical outlets.

Any materials the host institution distributes—including: statistics, game notes, quotes, etc.—should be located in this area.

NCAA.COM STATISTICS

NCAA.com is the official destination for live scores and statistics for all NCAA Championships. NCAA.com provides live stats data for all rounds of championships. Schools participating in these contests may not display live statistics on their official website, other than by linking to NCAA.com. A member of the NCAA.com operations team will be in contact with the host institution's media relations director to arrange the live statistics feed and testing schedule. Note: For select championships, StatBroadcast has been contracted to provide in-arena live statistics display for the media. Instructions on setting up the StatBroadcast feed will be included in the statistics feed transmission instructions distributed by NCAA Digital. Any questions pertaining to live statistics should be sent to jason.venson@wbd.com.

NCAA LIVESTATS

All hosts at predetermined championship sites are required to use NCAA LiveStats software for sports in which the product is available.

PERSONNEL

Each media coordinator is responsible for organizing workers to assist in the media operations of the championship. It is important to remind volunteers that they may see very little of the championship competition because of their responsibilities and the NCAA cannot pay any expenses. All volunteers should be a minimum of 16 years or older. It is preferred that all media coordination volunteers have experience with media relations or championships.

The number of workers will depend upon the media demand for the contests/games at the site. Communication with the participating SIDs and the host media coordinator's knowledge of the area media will help with advance planning.

The following is a basic list of duties for volunteers (if applicable):

- Copy Machine Personnel – Photocopies materials (for example: stats, notes, quotes, etc.).
- Credential Distribution – Pass out credentials to the media; check government-issued photo ID.
- Internal PA – Announcer for the media.
- Locker Room Attendant – Person to identify when the locker room is open and closed to the media.
- Mixed Zone Coordinator – Coordinates interviews in the mixed zone in events such as track and field and swimming and diving. Depending on the number of participants, this individual may need several assistants.
- Note Takers – Compiles worthy notes during and after the game or day.
- Photo Marshal – Makes sure photographers stay in appropriate places. Hands out photo armbands, if necessary.
- Press Conference Moderator – Introduces players and head coach; directs questions from the media.
- Quotes – Press conferences should be recorded (video and/or audio-only) and made available to the media. In the absence of a recording, quotes should be recorded and transcribed by volunteers and distributed to the media.
- Results Disseminator – Transmits statistics, notes, quotes, etc., through appropriate delivery means such as email, online document library (Box, Dropbox, SharePoint), etc.
- Runner(s) – Distributes photocopied materials (stats, notes, quotes, etc.).
- Stats Crew – Records the official statistics.
- Team Escorts – Volunteers to escort the coaches and student-athletes to the postgame press conference.

PHOTOGRAPHY AREA POLICIES

The media coordinator shall be prepared to designate photographer positions. Prime positions should be rotated among members of the media. NCAA Photos, when on site, must be given priority to all photo positions. All special requests (i.e., remotes) must be approved by the NCAA staff or the NCAA site representative.

POOL REPORTER POLICY

In sports where a specific pool reporter policy does not exist, the NCAA media coordinator or in the absence of one, the host media coordinator, will identify an individual to serve as the pool reporter prior to the start of the event. The pool reporter will be used if it is deemed necessary to get an interpretation from an official regarding a specific play or occurrence during a contest. Interpretations are not given if the situation in question is a judgment call.

The pool reporter shall accompany a member of the sport committee (or the NCAA site representative) to the official's locker room to receive an interpretation in order to enhance the public's understanding of activities that occurred during the contest.

In most cases, the head official will provide the interpretation on behalf of the officiating crew. In the instances in which a playing-rules liaison, secretary-rules editor or the coordinator of officials is on-site, they are able to answer the questions instead.

The host or NCAA media coordinator will be responsible for disseminating the information to the rest of the media present.

PRESS CONFERENCES

The media coordinator, or a member of his or her staff, shall attend all press conferences, including any conducted prior to the start of championship play. The media coordinator can decide to have a pre-championship press conference, whether in person or virtual, if the number of media or the interest in the championship warrants it. For on site press conference, the media coordinator should produce name tents to place on the dais/riser to identify the coaches and student-athletes. An example of a name tent can be seen as Appendix D on page 15.

ALL STUDENT-ATHLETES AND COACHES MUST BE MADE AVAILABLE FOR INTERVIEWS.

It is mandatory for the head coach and at least one student-athlete to report to the press conference following the cooling off period. However, media coordinators should request a minimum of two student-athletes. A coach can shorten the cooling off period but cannot extend it.

Student-athletes and coaches should only wear team and/or NCAA championship apparel. Additionally, press conference participants may not bring any outside products up on the dais. NCAA media coordinator or site representative will have final approval.

Interviews Post-Competition

The head coach must complete all media obligations to the covering media before honoring any in-season radio or television contracts. Coaches or student-athletes should first conduct interviews with the rights holding television or radio networks prior to the press conference following the conclusion of the game (ESPN, Westwood One Radio or WBD Sports). These interviews are permitted within a four-minute period immediately following the game. Interviews are to be given in priority order:

- (1) Network broadcast partner;
- (2) Westwood One Radio;
- (3) WBD Sports;
- (4) Participating team radio.

This does not mean four minutes per person, but four total minutes for all individuals interviewed. The media coordinator or designee has the responsibility to terminate the four-minute interview period, NOT the network/station that has purchased rights. However, assistant coaches are not obligated to the entire media staffing the championship and may grant postgame radio interviews at anytime after the conclusion of the contest/game.

OPEN LOCKER ROOM POLICY AND COOLING OFF PERIOD

The open locker room policy applies to all formal pre- and postgame press conferences and to any interview requests for coaches and/or student-athletes not involved in the press conferences. Failure to do so may result in a misconduct, as determined by the respective sport committee.

In the event that a student-athlete has been selected for drug testing, he or she must fulfill all media obligations before going to drug testing.

Individual/Team Championships Without Post-Event Press Conference

Student-athletes are allowed a maximum of a 10-minute cooling off period following their event before meeting with the media. If the student-athlete is ready prior to the 10 minutes, they can participate in interviews as soon as they are ready. However, they are not allowed to leave the venue before conducting their media interviews. Interviews will be conducted in the locker room, mixed zone or interview room.

A student-athlete who is competing in more than one event on a given day may request of the media coordinator to delay the interview period until concluding their final event of the day. The only exception to this is if a record was set, and then the student-athlete should be made available to the media shortly after that event. If time prohibits this, the media coordinator should get a quote from the student-athlete and distribute it to the media.

Individual/Team Championships With a Formal Press Conference

Student-athletes are allowed a maximum of a 10-minute cooling off period following their event before having to meet with the media. If the student-athlete is ready prior to the 10 minutes, he or she can participate in interviews as soon as they are ready. In individual/team championships, typically only the winner(s) needs to report to the press conference. If media requests warrant having the runner-up in the news conference, that person should go before the champion.

Team Championships With a Formal Press Conference

The losing team shall have a 10-minute cooling off period before they are to report to the interview room. The cooling off period starts once the head coach and all of the student-athletes have reached the locker room area. The winning team will report to the interview room immediately following the completion of the losing team's press conference.

NOTE: In some sports, the governing sport committee has determined the team order as well as the lengths for the cooling off period for press conferences. Please refer to the participant manual for the respective sport.

As space permits, as soon as one media member enters the locker room, it will be open for the media contingent. Locker rooms are open to the media for a minimum of 30 minutes, provided media is present the entire time. If space is not available, media may wait outside the locker room to conduct interviews.

MODERATOR DUTIES

- The moderator may give pertinent game statistics (i.e., leading rushers, passers, tacklers, game records) to media while they wait for the first team to arrive. Statistics should be distributed to the media, coaches and student-athletes as soon as they arrive.
- Sports information representatives should get the names of the student-athletes who will be attending the press conference and give them to the host or NCAA media coordinator, who will communicate to the moderator, so that they can be announced in advance.
- The moderator should open the press conference by asking the head coach for their opening statement.
- After the coach's comments, the moderator should open the floor to media for questions.
- If necessary, the moderator should try to get the student-athletes involved and direct a question to them if the media has not already done so.
- Limit the losing team to 10 minutes and the winning team to 20 minutes.

- The moderator should keep the flow of the press conference moving. If there is a gap of time between questions, limit questions to one more and then thank the head coach and student-athlete(s).
- The moderator should ensure that water is available to the press conference participants.

PRESS CONFERENCE SETUP

Each host media coordinator should designate an interview room or area at the facility, and an individual to coordinate the activities in it. The interview area should have a public address system and an elevated head table, if possible.

Depending on the expected number of media in attendance, media coordinators should use an audio mixer in the interview area to permit individuals using microphones to attach their equipment to it, eliminating the presence of audio equipment and/or operators in front of, or adjacent to, the speakers at the dais.

The following is a checklist of suggested minimum requirements for the interview room:

- Seating for a minimum number of media and/or VIPs (check with the previous host for an approximate number)
- Risers or an area in the back of the room with an unobstructed view for video cameras
- Table at the front of the room for a minimum of four to six interviewees
- Podium or space for moderator
- Sufficient electrical outlets
- Sufficient lighting for dais and work spaces
- Mult box
- Wireless microphones

For selected NCAA championships, press conference backdrops will be sent to the institution, and microphone flags will be provided by the NCAA.

PROGRAMS

The NCAA has contracted with Learfield to provide programs for all NCAA championships.

Programs will be provided in either a print or digital format. For information on the format for each championship, please see Appendix E on page 16. For those sites receiving printed programs, Learfield will handle the shipment. The championship programs should arrive 24 hours before the start of competition. Learfield will track the delivery status of the program hourly to ensure it is on schedule. If the programs have not been received the day before your championship and Learfield has not contacted you, please email Casey Castle (casey.castle@learfield.com) at Learfield. Each site will receive an allotment of complimentary programs designated for distribution to the media and the participating teams' travel parties (unless otherwise noted). The championships staff administrator will confirm the complimentary program distribution plan with the host site.

Championship sites with digital programs can find them online at ncaa.com/gameprograms. The NCAA/Learfield will provide to participating schools a one-sheet PDF to be printed and distributed on site; this PDF will feature a QR code and URL where the digital program can be accessed. This handout, QR code and/or URL should also be printed and used on signage to direct fans to the digital program. All handouts must include the QR code linking to the official program and may not include any advertising other than the NCAA's Corporate Champions and Partners.

Host media coordinators wanting to supplement the official digital program may do so via a hard copy, one-page handout. The handout can include, but is not limited to, the following information: team rosters, statistics and schedule results. All handouts must include the QR code linking to the official championship program.

Should you have any questions regarding the content of the championship programs or supplemental information you would like to provide, please contact Chad Laytham (chad.laytham@learfield.com) at Learfield.

RADIO

Please visit ncaa.com/media for updated information related to the NCAA's radio policies.

All stations broadcasting any round of an NCAA championship are required to fill out the NCAA championship Radio/internet streaming form online. To access the form, go to <https://www.ncaa.com/content/audio-policies-0>.

Forms must be filled out for each site of competition as teams advance throughout a championship.

SEAT ASSIGNMENTS

Media coordinators should ensure media agencies that regularly staff contests/games played by the participating and host institutions receive preferred seat locations.

SECURITY

Security personnel should be instructed to protect all working media and interview areas before and after each contest. In addition, security should limit access to restricted areas to individuals wearing proper credentials.

STATISTICS REPORTING TO THE NCAA

For all sports, email one set of complete results, as well as the all-tournament and most outstanding player selections to the NCAA statistics Department (ncaastats@ncaa.org).

The host sports information director, media coordinator or other designee is responsible for reporting official championship results to NCAA.com. At the conclusion of each championship contest or session (preliminary rounds and finals), please email the information below to NCAA-Editorial@warnermedia.com in the following format:

- Specify the division, sport, round and region in the subject area.
- Paste the text (official results, including date of competition, round, etc.) directly into the message box.

STROBE LIGHTS

The strobe lights are administered and pooled at the discretion of the NCAA or host media coordinator.

A maximum of three sets of strobe lights may be installed at the venue for media agencies requiring immediate news coverage. Strobe lights for a conventional arena must not exceed 2,400 watt-seconds for each power pack, and the flash duration should be less than 1/1,000-second. A typical approved installation consists of four power packs with tube heads on each pack.

All hanging or installed strobes must be as close to the playing surface as possible, depending upon the physical structure of the arena, near the corners of the playing surface. All strobes must be installed and tested, if necessary, at the site 24 hours before the start of the event during which the strobes will be used. The committee representative or NCAA championships staff liaison will grant final approval relative to the installation of strobes.

If the physical structure of an arena prevents a media agency from meeting these specifications, the agency may petition the specific sport committee for an exception.

No other strobes, including hand-carried units, are permitted in the arena, and no strobe or any other photography equipment may be placed on or attached to a goal standard.

TEAM/SCOUT VIDEO COORDINATOR

A scout video coordinator is permitted to film from the position designated in the participant manual. This is in addition to the two credentials issued to team content personnel. The scout video coordinator may only film their team's game(s). Representatives of participating institutions may record the network telecast of any game at the site, using a video distribution outlet in the video distribution area. The institution must provide its own recording equipment.

TEAM CONTENT

Each participating institution may designate two individuals as their team content individuals. More information can be found here.
