INFORMATIONAL ITEM.

- NCAA tournament hosting criteria. The committee clarified hosting standards for any team wishing to host a regional round NCAA tournament game. The new language states that a team must have played at least 10 regular-season games in its host rink, be able to provide locker rooms for each team in the arena or in an adjacent facility, and be able to provide at least 75 minutes of ice time on the official rink for practice on the day prior to the game. In addition, the institution must secure full-service hotels for the visiting teams with a meeting room that can accommodate at least 35 people.

Committee Chairs:     Jeremy Gibson, Merrimack College.

Staff Liaisons:         Caleb Kolby, Championships and Alliances.
