Challenge Process

- All lineups are due to the NCAA by Noon, Eastern time, Sunday, May 2.
- All lineups will be shared with head coaches by 8 p.m. Eastern time, Sunday, May 2.
- Any coach may submit a challenge to the lineup of any other team. All challenge forms must be submitted to kfasbender@ncaa.org no later than Noon Eastern time, Monday, May 3.
- A coach will be notified of any challenge to his or her lineup by 2 p.m. Eastern time, Monday, May 3. The coach will be provided the following information: (1) The specific challenge to the lineup and (2) the rationale for the challenge.
- Coaches whose lineups are being challenged will be given the opportunity to defend the challenge during a teleconference, Monday, May 3. The time of the call will be determined by the number of challenges received. Any head coach involved in the challenge must be available Monday afternoon, at the designated time to participate in the teleconference. The NCAA office will provide specifics of the call (dial-in number, time of the call, etc.) if a lineup is challenged.
- Discussion regarding the challenge will be presented to the NCAA Women's Beach Volleyball Committee, head official and NCAA staff. A ruling regarding the challenge to the lineup will be shared by 10 p.m. Eastern time, Monday, May 3. New lineups will be distributed to all coaches if the challenge is upheld.
