

NCAA Division I Committee for Legislative Relief

Transfer Waiver Trends and Themes in DI Men's Basketball

This report provides an overview of the emerging trends and themes in Division I Men's Basketball transfer waivers.

TRANSFER BREAKDOWN DURING THE 2018-19 ACADEMIC YEAR

THEMES

Men's basketball accounted for roughly 35% of all undergraduate transfer waivers during the 2018-19 academic year. Transfers due to mental health conditions (e.g., depression, anxiety, adjustment) are becoming increasingly prevalent.

Nearly 67% of men's basketball transfer waivers were submitted after the start of practice, including roughly 20% after the first contest.

Most Common Cases

Run-Off

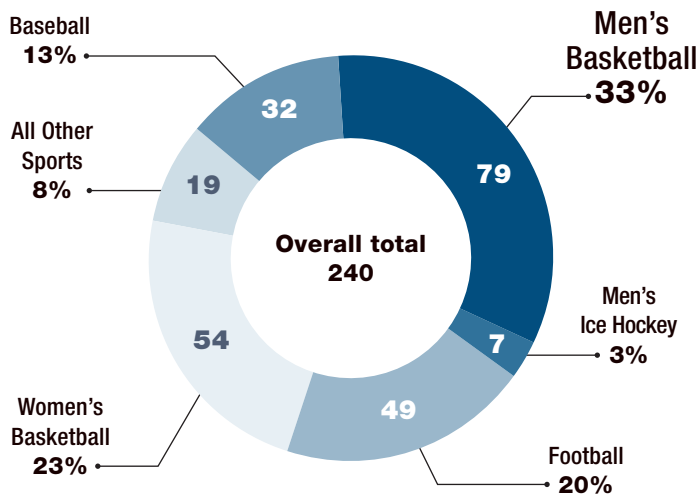

Injury/Illness of Family Member

Toxic Environment

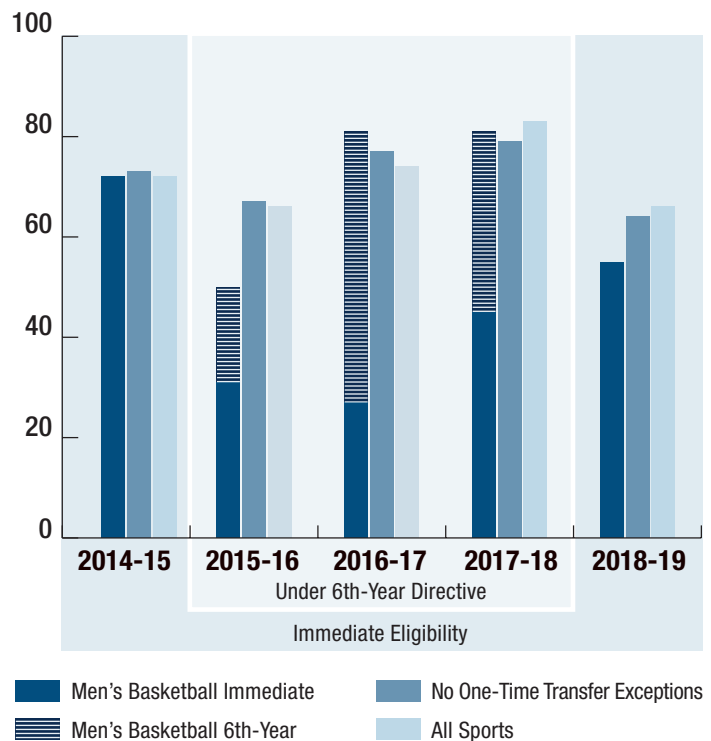

Mental Health

VOLUME BY SPORT

During the 2018-19 academic year, there were 79 waivers in men's basketball, which accounted for 33% of all Division I transfer waivers.

APPROVAL RATE BY SPORT

2018-19 SUMMARY

79 waivers submitted.

Approval rate is 55% which is down from 81% during 2017-18.

44 cases have been approved and 35 denied.

22 appealed to CLR, 10 were overturned.