

Outside Income in NCAA Division I Men's Basketball

WHAT'S NEW

Contractual agreements* for coaches and athletics staff must include the requirement that the staff member must report to the university's president or chancellor athletics-related income greater than $600 from any source outside the school.

 Examples of contractual agreements (e.g., contracts, letter of appointment, letter of hire).*

Effective Immediately

REPORTING OUTSIDE INCOME

Examples of athletics-related income or benefits include:

Income from endorsements	Consultation contracts with apparel companies	Equipment manufacturers	Television and radio programs	Employment by or ownership of sports camps	Payment for guest speaking engagements	Housing or transportation benefits	Control or management of a foundation

REQUIREMENT TO REPORT

All full-time or part-time athletics staff members who receive greater than $600 in athletics-related income from an outside source must report the earnings to the president or chancellor on an annual basis.

Effective Immediately

Athletics staff are required to annually report outside athletics-related income received since Aug. 8, 2018.

For more education on outside income, go to ncaa.org/governance/legislative-actions-and-issues, under Division I > College Basketball Reform > Question and Answer Documents > 2018-19 NCAA Division I Proposal No. 2018-17 (Athletically Related Income and Benefits) Question and Answer Document.