

REGIONAL RULES

2024 NCAA Regional Rules Seminar Association-Wide Daily Schedule

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 12

9 to 10:30 a.m.

Association-Wide Infractions Process – From Start to Finish – Introductory Augustus V/VI
Through a combination of lecture and directed question and answer, this session will provide a baseline overview of the major infractions process and its various components with an emphasis on adjudication methods, timelines, penalty structure and the roles of the Committee on Infractions and the Infractions Appeals Committees in the process.

9:30 to 10 a.m.

Association-Wide Level III/Secondary Enforcement and Student-Athlete Reinstatement – Introductory Augustus III/IV
This session will provide participants the opportunity to work through brief case studies to determine whether a student-athlete's eligibility to compete is impacted and whether it is necessary to report a Level III/Secondary violation to the enforcement staff. Participants will be broken into small groups, provided scenarios and asked to collaborate with their peers to determine student-athlete eligibility impact, institutional impact and whether other conditions or guidance documents may apply (e.g., repayment of a benefit, application of student-athlete reinstatement previously approved request list). Attendees should bring their laptop or other device to effectively participate.

9:45 to 10:45 a.m.

Association-Wide Transgender Student-Athlete Participation Policy - Introductory Palace III
Join NCAA staff from the Office of Inclusion and the NCAA Sport Science Institute as they clarify application of the NCAA transgender student-athlete participation policy, discuss next steps in policy implementation and review available resources to support trans, nonbinary and gender-expansive student-athletes and key stakeholders involved in creating inclusive environments on your campus. Staff will answer questions submitted by the audience.

10:15 to 10:45 a.m.

Association-Wide Introduction to the Regional Rules Seminar – Introductory Augustus III/IV
This introductory-level session is intended to provide first-time Regional Rules Seminar attendees with information, tips and tricks to navigate the Regional Rules Seminar, what to expect by attending sessions and how to network with other first-time attendees, NCAA staff and other seminar participants. Presenting staff will provide time to answer questions and offer guidance about attending the seminar.
