

2025 NCAA Regional Rules Seminar Association-Wide Daily Schedule

SESSION KEY

Introductory: These sessions will provide attendees with basic, introductory information about the topic(s) listed in the session description. Presenters will primarily use introductory language, concepts and examples in these sessions.

Mid-level: These sessions will provide attendees with information that is above a basic level of understanding on the topic(s) listed in the session description. Presenters will apply more advanced language in these sessions compared to introductory-level sessions but will not display an abundance of complex language, examples or concepts.

Advanced: These sessions will provide attendees with information that is more advanced in nature. Presenters will use advanced and complex language, concepts, and examples throughout these sessions.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 28

7:45 to 8:45 a.m.

Compliance Conversations: A Professional Development Series Grand 7-8

Grab your breakfast and join us for a conversation with several leaders and professionals in intercollegiate athletics. This programming will provide attendees with insights into several career paths at varying levels of experience within compliance and college athletics. Attendees will also have the opportunity to ask questions and engage with each other and the panelists.

9 to 9:30 a.m.

Association-Wide Institutional Performance Program (IPP) – Mid-level Grand 1

This session will explore using the NCAA IPP Data Management System institutional data to aid with institutional decision-making.

Association-Wide Introduction to NCAA Compliance Technologies – Introductory Grand 2-3-4

This introductory session will provide a general overview of the three main NCAA technology platforms [Compliance Assistant 2.0 (CA 2.0), Legislative Services Database for the Internet (LSDBi), Requests/Self-Reports Online (RSRO)] that assist member institutions with daily compliance monitoring efforts, as well as include helpful tips on how to efficiently use and implement these programs into institutional compliance policy.

Association-Wide Welcome to the Regional Rules Seminar – Introductory Grand 9-10

This introductory-level session is intended to provide first-time Regional Rules Seminar attendees with information, tips and tricks to navigate the Regional Rules Seminar, what to expect by attending sessions and how to network with other first-time attendees, NCAA staff and other seminar participants. Presenting staff will provide time to answer questions and offer guidance about attending the seminar.

9:45 to 10:45 a.m.

Association-Wide Bridging the Gap Between Athletics and Academics: The Role of a Faculty Athletics Representative – Introductory Grand 9-10

A discussion of best practices for engaging with faculty athletics representatives (FARs) and fostering collaboration with campus partners to holistically support student-athlete success. Emphasizing strategies for bridging the gap between athletics and academics, leveraging FARs to align institutional resources with student-athletes' unique needs.

Association-Wide Emerging Sports for Women – Expanding Participation Opportunities on Your Campus – Introductory Grand 2-3-4

This session will provide an overview of the NCAA Emerging Sports for Women program and how the current sports can enhance your campus opportunities. Presenters will also share important considerations around compliance and sports sponsorship to keep in mind as you consider adding or supporting these sports.

Association-Wide Infractions Cases: Hello from the Other Side – Mid-level Grand 7-8

Hear directly from compliance practitioners about their experiences navigating Level I/II/Major Infractions cases on their campuses in collaboration with the enforcement staff.

Association-Wide Office of Legal Affairs Update (repeated) – Mid-level Grand 5

This session will provide attendees the opportunity to listen to an overview of the NCAA legal and legislative landscape. Information will be delivered in a lecture-style format.

11 to 11:30 a.m.

Association-Wide Academic and Membership Affairs – Who, What, Where, Why and How – Introductory Grand 9-10

This introductory-level session is intended to offer attendees a behind the scenes look at the functions associated with the second largest department at the NCAA, academic and membership affairs. Attendees will be provided with information on several aspects of the department, its operations within Regulatory Affairs and its ongoing and collaborative work connections across the NCAA national office.

1 to 2 p.m.

Association-Wide Level III and Secondary Violations (repeated) – Introductory Grand 7-8

This session will provide an entry-level overview of Level III and Secondary violations. In this session, attendees will learn to identify and analyze Level III and Secondary violations; anticipate applicable corrective actions and penalties; and understand the self-reporting application process.

Association-Wide Maximizing the NCAA Learning Portal: Courses, Resources and What's Coming in Fall 2025 (repeated) – Introductory Grand 1

In this session, we will introduce you to the NCAA Learning Portal and highlight how it can support your educational needs with a wide range of courses and resources. Discover the current courses available to enhance your skills today, and learn about the portal's future goals, including exciting new content coming in fall 2025. Whether you're looking to build your knowledge or provide education on campus, this session will help you understand how the NCAA Learning Portal can support your learning goals. Bring your questions and leave with a clear understanding of how to make the most of the NCAA Learning Portal's offerings!

Association-Wide The Sports Betting Industry for Non-Bettors – Introductory Grand 2-3-4

Past, present and future of sports betting and how the industry intersects with college athletics; offering tools and insights to help administrators navigate complex sports betting policy, compliance and legal issues.

2:15 to 3:15 p.m.

Association-Wide How to Conduct On-Campus Investigations: Your NCAA Violation Game Plan – Introductory Grand 6

Does your campus have an investigative policy? Do you know what your game plan is if you learn of potential violations? Learn about all this and more in this session where the enforcement staff provides best practices for conducting a thorough and efficient on-campus investigation, including specific violation trends.

Association-Wide Uncovering the Odds: Reviewing Sports Betting Issues on Campus from an Enforcement Lens – Mid-level Grand 2-3-4

Learn about sports betting trends and understand how to review, investigate and collaborate with the enforcement staff on potential sports betting issues on your campus.

3:30 to 4:30 p.m.

Association-Wide Welcome to the World of Compliance: Navigating the NCAA Eligibility Center Membership Portal – Introductory Grand 2-3-4

Take a deep dive into the NCAA Eligibility Center Membership Portal with Eligibility Center staff to learn how to optimize your usage of this application, discover the latest updates and find out how to become more efficient using this essential initial-eligibility application. This session is designed for new academic and compliance professionals and those who need an inside look at best practices for using this portal. Attendees are encouraged to bring laptops to enhance the learning experience!

THURSDAY, MAY 29

7:30 to 8:15 a.m.

Compliance Conversations: A Professional Development Series Grand 7-8

Grab your breakfast and join us for a conversation with several leaders and professionals in intercollegiate athletics. This programming will provide attendees with insights into several career paths at varying levels of experience within compliance and college athletics. Attendees will also have the opportunity to ask questions and engage with each other and the panelists.

8:30 to 9 a.m.

Association-Wide Navigating the Functions of Regulatory Affairs – Introductory Grand 1

Step inside the work areas of the three departments that make up Regulatory Affairs at the NCAA, and hear from staff members from academic and membership affairs, the NCAA Eligibility Center and enforcement as participants will learn basic functions of each area, how to interact with staff within these areas, the verbiage used across Regulatory Affairs and the collaborative efforts exercised to assist the NCAA membership.

9:15 to 10 a.m.

Association-Wide Navigating the RSRO System for Level III and Secondary Violations – Introductory Grand 1

This session is hands on and will provide tips and best practices for completing a violation report in the RSRO system focusing on common questions and pain points for users.

1:45 to 3:15 p.m.

Association-Wide Around the World in 90 Minutes: International Initial-Eligibility Certifications – Advanced Grand 7-8

Grab your passport and connect with NCAA Eligibility Center staff as we take you around the world of international certifications. This session will provide a framework for how to best support your international recruits, a review of our academic certification methodologies and amateurism certification recommendations.

3:30 to 4:30 p.m.

Association-Wide Office of Legal Affairs Update (repeat) – Mid-level Grand 5

This session will provide attendees the opportunity to listen to an overview of the NCAA legal and legislative landscape. Information will be delivered in a lecture-style format.

4:45 to 5:30 p.m.

Association-Wide Maximizing the NCAA Learning Portal: Courses, Resources and What's Coming in Fall 2025 (repeat) – Introductory Grand 7-8

In this session, we will introduce you to the NCAA Learning Portal and highlight how it can support your educational needs with a wide range of courses and resources. Discover the current courses available to enhance your skills today, and learn about the portal's future goals, including exciting new content coming in fall 2025. Whether you're looking to build your knowledge or provide education on campus, this session will help you understand how the NCAA Learning Portal can support your learning goals. Bring your questions and leave with a clear understanding of how to make the most of the NCAA Learning Portal's offerings!

FRIDAY, MAY 30

9:30 to 11 a.m.

Fireside Chat with Dr. Kevin White – Author of "The Good Sport: Reflections on a Full Life in College Sports – Mid-level Grand 7-8

During this discussion, you will hear about lessons in leadership, perseverance, strategic planning and more as Dr. White shares his experience of 50 years in intercollegiate athletics.

1 to 2 p.m.

Association-Wide Student-Athlete Reinstatement – Introductory Grand 7-8

This session will provide an in-depth foundational-level overview of the student-athlete reinstatement process, including violations and all waiver types processed by the student-athlete reinstatement staff. Attendees will come away with an understanding of the reinstatement process, the guiding principles with which staff makes decisions and the foundational elements of how the reinstatement process works from start to finish, including the appellate opportunity.

2:15 to 3:15 p.m.

Association-Wide Level III and Secondary Violations (repeat) – Introductory Grand 7-8

This session will provide an entry-level overview of Level III and Secondary violations. In this session attendees will learn to identify and analyze Level III and Secondary violations; anticipate applicable corrective actions and penalties; and understand the self-reporting application process.

