Copy of court order or state agency placement order granting custody of athlete to legal guardian.
SUMMER SEASON
Host Family Address*	The host family address is in the same locale as the school the athlete is attending; and The athlete has lived with the host family and attended the same school for a one full academic year.	Non-US athlete Transcript from school showing one full year of attendance; and I20 application for the school they are currently attending; and F1 Visa.
		US athlete Transcript from school showing one full year of attendance.
Boarding School Address*	The athlete has attended the school for one full academic year.	Non-US athlete Transcript from school showing one full year of attendance; and I20 application for the school they are currently attending; and F1 Visa.
		US athlete Transcript from school showing one full year of attendance.
Legal Guardian Address	The guardianship was established in a court of law or by government agency; and The parents' rights have been permanently severed; and The guardianship was not established for the purposes of attending school or to play basketball.	Copy of court order or state agency placement order granting custody of athlete to legal guardian.

*After the full academic year requirement has been met once and the athlete moves, the athlete does not have to complete another full academic year. The athlete can use the new address after it has been established and maintained for a minimum of three months.

Court appointed guardianship is rare and most of the "guardianships" athlete's claim do not meet ECAG requirements. However, the athlete can still use the address if they meet the host family requirements for the respective season (Spring or Summer) above.
