

Committee on Infractions Hearing

Cases in which the school or one or more individuals do not agree to the facts, violations or violation levels may be processed through a hearing with a panel of Division I Committee on Infractions members. Members of the COI can include representatives from member schools, conferences and the public, including current and former university presidents, chancellors and athletics directors, conference commissioners, campus administrators, faculty athletics representatives, former coaches, former government officials, and more.

COMMITTEE ON INFRACTIONS HEARING

