NCAA IPP INSTITUTIONAL PERFORMANCE PROGRAM

WHO CAN ACCESS THE PROGRAM?

The IPP data management system is available to all Division I, II and III schools and conferences. Each school or conference determines the appropriate level of access to IPP data for each of its staff members.

WHAT DOES THE PROGRAM INCLUDE?

Longitudinal information in the areas of academics, membership, finances, and health and safety.

WHERE DOES THE DATA COME FROM?

All of the data contained in IPP is currently collected by the NCAA.
It includes information from:

Academic Portal and Academic Performance Program	Annual Health and Safety Survey	NCAA Eligibility Center	NCAA Financial Reporting System	NCAA Graduation Rates Reporting System	NCAA Sports Sponsorship Form

NCAA®

HOW CAN THE INFORMATION BE USED?

ACADEMIC DATA

The data can help colleges and universities evaluate the academic profile of their student-athletes, how the student-athletes progress and the academic outcomes they achieve. After reviewing the quantitative data, a school can add qualitative information, such as "what academic support is available" to assess its program's needs.
