Division III Monthly Update - August 2019

Special Olympics Spotlight Winner - August 2019

After 222 total votes, Johnson & Wales Denver hosts Special Olympics won the August Special Olympics Spotlight Poll by gathering nearly 90% (201) of the total votes. The Wildcats will receive $500 to use for their next Special Olympics event.

To submit a story for consideration, please email d3specialolympics@ncaa.org.

Diversity Spotlight Initiative - August 2019

Pacific Lutheran University is the recipient of the August Division III Diversity Spotlight Initiative. The athletics department hosted the first-ever regional collegiate training in collaboration with RISE Initiative in Sports for Equality (RISE), bringing together administrators from colleges throughout the Pacific Northwest to tackle issues of diversity, identity, and inclusion. Click here for more information.

The Diversity Spotlight Initiative recognizes and promotes outstanding diversity related projects, programming and initiatives that are occurring on Division III campuses and in conference offices. All selected recipients receive $500 toward their next diversity initiative.

To submit a story for consideration, please email lmccleary@ncaa.org.

Division III Interpretations and Legislation Committee

The Division III Interpretations and Legislation Committee is responsible for interpreting Division III legislation and issuing official interpretations and educational resources, as necessary. The committee also reviews and refines legislative proposals; incorporates interpretations into the Division III legislation; and reviews Division III legislative issues to ensure that the legislation remains appropriate and relevant in the Division III climate. The committee conducts monthly teleconferences and meets in person twice a year.

Division III Grants, Programs and Scholarships

Over 25 percent, or approximately $7 million, of the annual Division III nonchampionships budget is devoted to supporting member schools and conferences through various educational programs and financial initiatives.

Member schools and conference offices are encouraged to apply for a multitude of programs, grants and scholarships that aim to enhance the Division III philosophy. These programs and initiatives provide opportunities for Division III members to:

- Educate student-athletes, coaches and administrators;
- Expose student-athletes to careers in intercollegiate athletics;
- Participate in professional development opportunities; and
- Increase diversity and inclusion via the Division III diversity grants.

Association-wide Drop Down Menu
