

Program Impact Report

96% felt they are better prepared to interview for a head coach position.

96% felt they have developed a skillset that is directly applicable and transferable to a position of leadership.

90% felt they have a better understanding of various coaching strategies and philosophies.

100% felt they grew as a leader and can immediately apply the skills and knowledge learned at the academy.

96% felt Leadership Development created a space for participants to build and expand their network of like-minded individuals.

90% felt they have expanded their network of peers and industry leaders after attending the academy.

100% felt the information learned is applicable to what they do in their current role.

100% felt the information they learned is relevant to obtaining future roles.

100% of participants said they would encourage others to attend the program.

Who attended?

BY GENDER

100% Identified as male

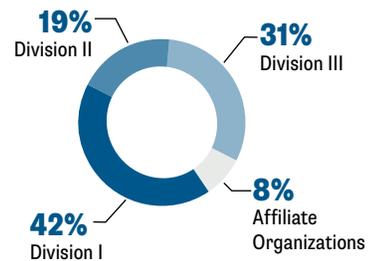

BY ETHNICITY

3.7% Asian

40.7% White/Non-Hispanic

55.6% Black/African American

BY DIVISION

BY TITLE

