

Program Impact Report

100% felt they are better prepared to interview for a head coach position.

97% felt they have developed a skillset that is directly applicable and transferable to a position of leadership.

97% felt they have a better understanding of various coaching strategies and philosophies.

100% felt they grew as a leader and can immediately apply the skills and knowledge learned at the academy.

100% felt they have expanded their network of peers and industry leaders after attending the academy.

100% felt the information learned is applicable to what they do in their current role.

100% felt the information they learned is relevant to obtaining future roles.

and expand their network of like-minded individuals.

100%
of participants said they would encourage others to attend the program.

Who attended?

BY GENDER

94% Identified as male

6% Identified as female or nonbinary

BY ETHNICITY

5.6% Asian

25% White/Non-Hispanic

69.4% Black/African American

BY DIVISION

