

2022 DIVISION II/III PATHWAY PROGRAM

Program Impact Report

88% of DII/III Pathway participants agreed/strongly agreed that they now have a better understanding of their leadership philosophy. (Q1)

75% of DII/DIII Pathway participants agreed/strongly agreed that they are better prepared to succinctly articulate their desired message to various constituent groups. (Q1)

100% of DII/III Pathway participants agreed/strongly agreed that they are ready to put their leadership philosophy into action daily with others they lead. (Q1)

100% of DII/III Pathway participants agreed they were provided tangible experiences that simulate real-life scenarios to build skills they will need for the next step in their career as an Athletics Director or Commissioner. (Q2)

100% of DII/III Pathway participants agreed they had been introduced to a diverse set of senior leaders within collegiate athletics. (Q2)

100% of DII/III Pathway participants feel they are better prepared to make executive decisions within collegiate athletics. (Q1)

100% of DII/III Pathway participants felt they have grown as a leader and can immediately apply the skills/knowledge they learned. (Q3)

88% of DII/III Pathway participants feel the program's content is relevant to their current role and beyond. (Q1)

100%
of DII/III Pathway participants would encourage others to attend the program. (Q5)

100%
of DII/DIII Pathway participants agreed the program met their expectations. (Q6)

Who attended?

BY GENDER

62%

Identified as female

38%

Identified as male

BY ETHNICITY

13% American Indian/Alaskan Native

87% White/Non-Hispanic

BY DIVISION

38%
Division II

62%
Division III

